BY the many additions and improvements lately made, is the most convenient in England for clearing rice, &c. &c. The largest ships that come from Carolina can lay a-float at all times of tide, and as the wharff is now covered, rice can be shifted in any weather.—The post going to and from London, every day, makes it very convenient, and skins, indico, or such other goods, as are often sent by land, may be immediately conveyed by waggons to London. Any number of porters may be had in order to dispatch business, and many other advantages attend the proprietors of ships and cargoes, too tedious to mention.

William Gibbes,

RETURNS his hearthy thanks, to his friends and customers for all past favours, and acquaints them, that he still continues the FACTORAGE BUSINESS in all its branches, on the usual commission; and to enable him the better to comply with the orders of his friends, hath provided himself with three GOOD SCOONERS of 100, 125 and 130 barrels burthen, which will be constantly employ'd for that purpose, and they may depend on being punctually served in turn, as their orders shall come to hand.

He hath also, a very good CHAIR HORSE, and a neat and strong London made chair, imported about fifteen months ago, and is little the worse for the wear it has had, to be sold very cheap.

SHEED & WHITE,

(Having declined the Dry Goods Business)

ACQUAINT all persons indebted to them, either by bond, note, or book debts, that unless they are discharged by the first day of March next, they will, without distinction, be put into the hands of an attorney at law, to be recovered; it is therefore hoped every person concerned may pay a due regard to this timely notice, as it will be a means of preventing that trouble which otherwise unavoidably must ensue.—Their Compting house is kept on the Bay, next door to Messrs.
